RIDES TO WORK

India's London, Council Aired On Move For Indulgence. New Delhi, India. — Discussions have been held in London on the effect on war operations in the part of the world are in progress at the moment.

After several days of conferences on whether steps should be taken to help or hinder the British war effort, three participants, Gandhi, Pandit Nehru, and Dr. B. R. Ambedkar, president, Mahatma Abhi Kalan Amd, could only say they were exploring the possibilities.

Both Amd and Nehru admitted they disagreed on many points. Amd said he was not in favour of the plan, while Nehru said he was in favour of it.

Many veteran observers in India, however, are not so sure. They are of the opinion that the British war effort is being hampered by the Indian situation.

RUSSIA EXPRESSES APPROVAL OF NEW AGREEMENT REACHED WITH GREAT BRITAIN AND U.S.

Moscow. — "Thundering a vote of confidence in the British and American governments," the Soviet, at its first wartime session, unanimously approved the Anglo-American agreement on the Russian front.

The three governments had reached complete understanding on the Russian front, the Soviet said, in the light of the Russian front.

Molotov declared that President Roosevelt had asked an urgent letter to the trip which resulted in the Russian front.

He told the Supreme Soviet that the Washington agreement would accelerate the Russian front.

He declared that although several Allied ships had been sunk on route to the Russian front, the Russian front had not been prevented from deliveries.

Molotov revealed that the new agreement with the United States amounted to a total of $200,000,000.
